WHAT IF THE FORCES DECIDE TO PLAY ALL AGAINST YOU BUT YOUR GREATEST WEAPON STAYS INSIDE YOUR HEAD? Welcome to the world of Jonty. A sensible and matured teenager whose life finally started to make sense after several years of an accident trauma which wiped out his memory and killed his father. His college life was at an all time high with a typical best friend and dramatic crushes. But life is not that predictable, is it? As his life shifted south-ways in the craziest way possible, he transformed into a normal college kid to a swearing, cursing example of violence who will stop at nothing to protect his family. Being escorted and trained by a Castellan Prize Winner Dr Vikram Jaitley and a special task force agent Raghav Goswami starting from the streets of Delhi to the natural alleyways of Odisha, Jaydev Shekhawat(Jonty) would be facing against an enemy who is without a face as it is not some personality but a whole rogue organisation by itself. Jonty uncovers secrets he never knew and his life was never the same again. His gift was not strength or agility. It wasn't something outworldly magical but it was worth billions at the mafia market. What is he dealing with? What transformed him from a regular teenager to a vicious cussing warrior and what were the secrets his mother tried to hide? Welcome to the first instalment of the Cerebral Saga, an extraordinary global journey under gritty circumstances which answers the Question, "What is the Perfect Flaw?"
