When Katarina's boss, Heather, insists Katarina go to a charity Halloween dance to represent their tattoo parlor, Katarina is than thrilled. The last thing she wants to do is run around drooling after guys she doesn't even know. And the fact that Heather has selected a cat costume that might reveal a bit more of Katarina's plus-size figure is just another reason to call in sick. But when Katarina gets the nerve to try on the costume, she's pleased with how beautiful it makes her look. And so is Brandon, the younger, very hot guy taking tickets. He makes every excuse to show her around and make sure she's happy...and when he makes it known that he'd like to make her even happier—costumes optional—Katarina wonders if maybe it might be time to show him what a real woman can do... Reader note: contains hot BBW heroine, cat costumes, and erotic romance elements
