Israel, an adored pastor from rural Georgia, lives a peaceful and fulfilling life. However, when he begins to suffer disturbing nightmares, he is nearly brought to the brink of sanity. After a tragic accident, he is placed in the hospital which leads to a discovery that changes everything. Shortly after he returns home, he is visited by a sinister figure that asks only one thing from him, "Confess your sins, Israel." Amidst his darkest hours, the very foundations of his faith are shaken, and all that he holds dear begins to wane in the doubt that plagues his mind.
