Humanity has fallen into a canyon far away from God, and many of us don't know why we are here or what we are supposed to be doing. It's important to recognize that in order to find happiness, man must learn how to avoid being an instrument of his own destruction. He must control his desires, thoughts, ego, and selfishness. He must also learn how to embrace others. In this guidebook, you'll find the answers to important and fundamental questions that everyone asks, including: What do you do when you feel stagnant but really want to progress? Is there anything you should be doing more of or should know? How do you know if you are on the right track? How do you pull yourself out of a downward spiral? How do you know if you have the free will, and how do you harness it? Equip yourself with the tools to break free from a stagnant lifestyle and start accomplishing your goals. While temptations abound, it's possible to muster up the willpower to make the right decisions, find the tree of knowledge and eat of its fruit in this lifetime. It begins with Gift of Freewill .
