Mail Order Brides Historical Romance  Standalone  Living in with a rich family does not mean living the life of a rich person. Young sweet Gretchen Mollie is half-starved and overworked as the nanny to the Finaker family, one of the wealthiest in Wichita.

Little did she know that help was on its way. Rafe and Donovan McElroy just happen to be in the right place at the right time, when Gretchen makes her escape. Hoping to get lucky in love, Rafe travels from Dodge to Wichita looking for the long sister of someone they know. The person they've come looking for just might be Gretchen after all. And Rafe claims her for his own. But it's Donny she wants and who wants her. They find a connection and a passion that comes before the bond of brothers, and becomes one of man and wife. Will the McElroys respect that true love can't wait even when it comes so fast? And will Gretchen find out who she really is? Mature Audiences Only
