First novella in the Dream Killer series. Fast-paced stories targeted for fans of Once Upon A Time. My name's River, and I'm a dream killer. The Sea of Dreams spat me out without any memories of who was or where I came from. I've spent years traveling Dreamland in our gypsy caravan, searching for clues. All I've discovered is that the all-powerful elders are collecting people like me—Dreamlanders who don't fit in. Then I met a man who sails the Sea of Dreams, the one place all Dreamlanders fear. One touch of those ocean waves could shred the soul. Yet, he's like me. He can hear the water's whispers, touch her waves, and watch her dreams. My answers are out there—on his ship, on that sea. Somewhere out there is the graveyard of dreams.
